

ONTARIO FIRST NATIONS YOUNG PEOPLE'S COUNCIL
AND CHIEFS OF ONTARIO PRESENTS

COVID-19 YOUTH TOWNHALL

Join us on December 16, 2020, for a two-hour discussion with First Nations youth, guest speakers and Indigenous organizations, on topics such as mental health and how First Nations youth can access supports and stay connected.

This town hall will be a safe space to learn about COVID-19 and how other First Nations youth are coping. Please feel free to bring your experiences and stories and any questions you may have.

DECEMBER 16, 2020 | 1 PM TO 3 PM EST
VIA ZOOM

For more information, please contact
Megan Logan at Megan.Logan@coo.org.

ONTARIO FIRST NATIONS YOUNG PEOPLE'S COUNCIL IS SEEKING

YOUTH PANELISTS FOR THE YOUTH COVID-19 TOWNHALL

The OFNYPC is seeking four youth to share their unique stories and experiences while navigating the COVID-19 pandemic. during the Youth COVID-19 Town Hall on December 16, 2020 via Zoom from 1 PM - 3 PM EST.

We are hoping to secure one speaker from each of the four areas:

- Frontline Workers
- Mental Health and Addictions during COVID-19
- Stigma and Testing Positive for COVID-19
- Land-based Activities/Healing during COVID-19

For those looking to participate, please contact Megan Logan at Megan.Logan@coo.org. The deadline for those looking to participate on the youth panel is December 7, 2020, by 5 p.m.

